Customer success and support for Commvault's integrated portfolio of solutions and services and the Commvault Data Platform were on full display at the company's inaugural customer conference, Commvault GO 2016, earlier this month. Commvault GO 2016 brought together Commvault users, partners, employees, analysts and industry luminaries for three days of dynamic presentations, inspiring knowledge exchange and empowering network opportunities.

"The new wave of customers joining us this quarter and our tremendously successful Commvault GO event in early October are a clear testament to the company's momentum and leadership in the data management market today," said N. Robert Hammer, chairman, president and CEO of Commvault. "We are proud of our success and strongly believe our commitment to bringing new innovations to market within our integrated portfolio of solutions and services and the Commvault Data Platform continue to set us apart from our competitors."
